NEW BUSINESS

- I. Christopher Lawrence Gray, 975 Forrest Ave, Memphis, Tenn. 38105, has applied for an on and off-premises permit to sell alcohol-infused products at Quintessential Sweets, located at 2811 Bartlett Blvd, Bartlett, Tenn. 38134.

City Attorney Ed McKenney told the Beer Board that he has spoken with the applicants regarding this new venture and provided them with a copy of Ordinance 19-01, which allows the sale of alcohol-infused items. The Board of Mayor and Aldermen approved this ordinance April 9, 2019. The ordinance dictates specific information businesses selling alcohol-infused items must print on their menus or post on their store walls. This information includes indicating which items contain alcohol, the sale of such products is prohibited to individuals under 21 years of age, and a warning to pregnant women.

Cassandra Gray, co-owner of Quintessential Sweets, attended the meeting on behalf of the business.

Mr. Smith asked if the employees will ask for identification when selling their alcohol-infused products. Mrs. Gray assured him they would.

Ms. Massey asked if the business will have multiple employees. Mrs. Gray stated that Quintessential Sweets will have five employees and four will be licensed to serve alcohol-infused products.

Ms. Williams asked if the business will serve a limited number of alcohol-infused ice creams.

Mrs. Gray said the alcohol-infused items will be limited to pre-made Icees and ice creams. She assured Ms. Williams that no alcohol will be added after the Icees and ice creams are made.

ADJOURN

Ms. Williams warned Mrs. Gray to make sure you review the ordinances that were in the application packet you received from the Finance Department. We do not take selling beer to minors lightly, and we do not want to see you back here for a permit violation.
