NEW BUSINESS

Assessment of penalties for violations of Section 8-310(5) of the City of Bartlett Codified Ordinances which makes it unlawful for a permit holder to make or allow any sale of beer to a minor under twenty-one (21) years of age.

I. Mapco #3142, 6127 Stage Road First violation - May 9, 2017

City Prosecutor David Lakin stated that the alleged violation occurred on May 9, 2017 at Mapco Store #3142, located at 6127 Stage Road. Allegedly a Mapco employee checked the underage operative's identification, then sold a 25 oz. Bud Light Lime Straw-ber-Rita to the minor working with the Shelby County Sheriff's DUI Unit.

This Mapco store is a state-certified Responsible Vendor, which was granted by the Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission (ABC) April 4, 2017. The certificate number is 300146.

Mr. Lakin noted that Mapco does not contest the allegations.

Beer Board members asked for an explanation as to the timing of the store's Responsible Vendor certification and the violation. Mr. Lakin explained that state law gives businesses 61 days to train their employees, and this violation occurred within the grace period.

Emeka Oaeigah, District Manager with Mapco, stated that the company does not intend to contest the allegation. He confirmed the violation did occur at the Mapco at 6127 Stage Road. Mr. Oaeigah stated that Mapco has a zero tolerance policy. He said the company voluntarily agreed to be a state responsible vendor, and have kept a clean slate. He said one violation is too many. The employee that sold to the underage operative was terminated the same day. The store manager took over running the store right after the violation, which is company policy.

Mr. Davenport asked who performs the Responsible Vendor training. Mr. Lakin responded that the training can be done by a certified vendor approved by the State ABC or businesses can send its employees to ABC-approved classes.

Mr. Lakin stated that the penalty guidelines are different for Responsible Vendors, and under state statute the Board cannot suspend this permit holder's license. The Board can impose a maximum of a $1,000 civil penalty.

RESULT:	$250 CIVIL PENALTY [UNANIMOUS]
MOVER:	Richard Davenport
SECONDER:	Cordell Battles
AYES:	Richard Davenport, Cordell Battles, Deborah Williams, Ryan Smith

2. Circle K/BP Station, 8110 Highway 64
First violation - April 9, 2015
Second violation - March 16, 2016

Mr. Lakin state that the permit holder, Circle K Stores, does not dispute the factual allegations present, that on March 16, 2016 an employee sold an underage operative with the Shelby County Sheriff's DUI Unit a 25-ounce Four Loko Fruit Punch after checking the minor's ID.

Circle K Stores' attorney Ben Fox stated that agreed that this violation did occur as set forth.

Mr. Lakin pointed out that Circle K has changed the permit holder of this store since this violation occurred; therefore the Board should approve a civil penalty for this violation because an inactive permit cannot be suspended.

RESULT:	$2,500 CIVIL PENALTY [UNANIMOUS]
MOVER:	Deborah Williams
SECONDER:	Richard Davenport
AYES:	Richard Davenport, Cordell Battles, Deborah Williams, Ryan Smith

3. Circle K/BP Station, 8110 Highway 64
First violation - May 9, 2017

Mr. Lakin stated that on May 9, 2017 an employee of the Circle K, located at 8110 Highway 64, allegedly sold a 24-ounce can of Twisted Tea to an underage operative of the Shelby County Metro DUI Unit. The employee checked the minor's ID and made the sale anyway.

Circle K's Attorney, Ben Fox, agreed that the allegation occurred.

Mr. Lakin noted that this violation is complicated by the fact that Circle K obtained a new permit for this store on May 9, 2017, but is still the corporate owner of the store. He encouraged the Board to treat this violation as a third offense.

Mr. Davenport, after confirming that Mr. Fox had been before the Beer Board before representing the same store, stated that this store has had multiple offenses since opening. He then asked for clarification regarding the permit revocation the Beer Board approved for this store last year.

Mr. McKenney explained that Circle K filed a lawsuit challenging the permit revocation, while stipulating that the violation did occur. Mr. McKenney and Circle K's legal team resolved the issue with a 30-day suspension, which was filed in Chancery Court July 21, 2016.

Mr. Fox clarified that the permit holder name was changed for all Circle K stores in Tennessee. There is no attempt to hide that this is the same entity permitted under Circle K Stores Gulf Coast Division, based in Pensacola, Florida. The Beer Board heard a second violation under that permit holder just before this agenda item.

Mrs. Williams stated that she believes this violation should be treated as a third violation since this is the same corporate entity.

RESULT:	REVOCATION [UNANIMOUS]
MOVER:	Deborah Williams
SECONDER:	Richard Davenport
AYES:	Richard Davenport, Cordell Battles, Deborah Williams, Ryan Smith

After the revocation motion was made and approved, the Board and attorneys had a lengthy conversation about stings and Circle K's actions to prevent further sales to minors.

Mr. Fox stated that Clarissa Butler has been the manager of the Circle K at 8110 Highway 64 since June 2017. Circle K managers used to oversee multiple stores, but Ms. Butler's sole responsibility is this store. Every employee receives extensive training both when they are hired and throughout their employment. Circle K performs internal stings, and employees are terminated if they fail.

At the time of the violation, this store had an ID scanner, but it was not connected to the register to stop a sale if the customer was a minor trying to purchase alcohol. Mr. Fox stated that this store now has the equipment and software in place that prevents a sale from completing if the ID provided by the customer shows an age under 21. The employee does not enter any data, the software computes the age from the scanned ID.

Mr. Davenport asked if this store's regional manager is still David Stephens, who was the regional manager during the last several times this store been before the Beer Board. Mr. Fox confirmed that Mr. Stephens is still the regional manager for this store. Mr. Davenport stated that since they've installed all these procedures and training to prevent sales to minors, and fired the employees who made the sale, that the person they should fire is David Stephens. Mr. Stephens has been the common thread in all these violations.

Due to an earlier question about undercover operatives using fake IDs, Mr. Lakin explained law enforcement agency beer stings. He stated that state law provides the guidelines for such operations. Underage operatives must use their actual state-issued identification, and they must look their age. Additionally, if they are asked for their ID or their age, they are required to tell the truth. At no time do underage operatives use a fake ID.
